

What is the Annual Meeting Scholarship Drawing?

Butte Electric Cooperative will award one (1) $1,000 scholarship at the Annual Meeting on October 28, 2022. The recipient will be drawn at random from all eligible applicants. This unique scholarship opportunity gives all eligible applicants an equal chance of winning. The winner will be given a check written to the college or school of the winner's choice.

Who is eligible to receive the Scholarship and Apprenticeship?

Butte Electric members or dependents of members are eligible to apply for this scholarship. The applicant must register and attend Butte Electric Cooperative's Annual Meeting on October 28, 2022. The applicant will need to submit an application by October 21, 2022. At the Annual Meeting, the applicant will sign-in at the registration table prior to the meeting and be present for the drawing. The student must be enrolled or planning to enroll in a full-time undergraduate or graduate course of study at an accredited, two-year or four-year college, university or vocational technical school.

The applicant must also be a U.S. citizen. The scholarship will be awarded without regard to other awards, loans, or financial assistance the applicant may have obtained.
